Hours of Operation:
Monday-Friday: 9AM-3PM
Saturday & Sunday: Closed

How to make a referral:
The third-party agency working with the youths would contact Ms. Lalime to discuss appropriate program. Youths are not individually enrolled in these programs.

Education & Employment

- In-class and in-the-field educational and recreational activities such as fishing, boating, kayaking, snorkeling, dissections, marine biology and conservation education.
- Charting a Course in the Marine Industries- vocational fishing education and post-secondary preparation; On-the-job training initiatives

Volunteerism and Mentorship

- Youths have opportunities not only to be mentored by professionals in the field, but also have the opportunity to mentor other youths in the program or serve as camp counselors upon participation and completion of programs.

Youths become involved in these programs through third-parties (i.e., referrals from the Riviera Beach Youth Empowerment Center or PBC Youth Services). A specified number of youths would have to be enrolled in these programs (15-40) before the third-party agency could set up an educational experience.
